

Subject	Historical Data	Additional Notes
CHRM	The Incumbent Contractor (as defined in Section H) employs 29.77 full-time equivalent personnel as of 04/18/2024. This includes 51 total employees, 25 of which are full-time.
CHRM	None of the current employees of the Incumbent Contractor or Subcontractors are covered by a Collective Bargaining Agreement
CHRM	20 Percent or less of current employees of the Incumbent Contractor or Subcontractors are non-exempt Service Contract Act employees
Location	Place of Performance as of December 2023: 12 full-time employees in Germantown 9 full-time employees in Forrestal	* Germantown and Forrestal employees are on-site as needed according to approved telework agreements and have federal office space allocated.
Location	62 full-time or part-time employees located in corporate offices or remote across the continental United States	* These employees perform work on-site as needed, or when travel is required by the PWS. No office space is allocated for these personnel, but turnaround space may be available.
Property	Approximately 20 government-owned laptops and 10 cell phones are currently utilized by EM CTSS contractor employees.
NOTE:	The information presented in this document is a general representation of the current operating posture of EM CTSS contract. This list is not instructive or all-inclusive. This information is provided to assist offerors in their development of proposals.	